

CUTS FOR EVERY Cuisine

The Foodservice Guide to Fresh-Cut Celery

Celery is a staple in professional kitchens around the world, adding a distinct texture and flavor to a variety of dishes. Chefs know that when it comes to celery, there's one brand they can trust to consistently deliver on the quality and flavor they need—Dandy®.

Founded in 1926, Duda Farm Fresh Foods is in our sixth generation of family farming. For over 90 years, we have proudly grown celery with a commitment to develop proprietary varieties that are Naturally Sweeter & Crispier® and have less strings. As the fresh-cut celery leader, we are the largest grower and processor of fresh-cut celery not only in the United States, but around the world. Our fresh-cut celery products are marketed under the Dandy® brand, and sold and served in retail and foodservice establishments all year round.

A TRUSTED HERITAGE BRAND

Duda's variety development program, special processing techniques, packaging development research and food safety protocols guarantee simply superior celery. Look for the Duda Generations logo indicating Duda's proprietary varieties. These varieties have been developed through extensive research and breeding over the last 130+ years for a naturally sweeter and crispier product.

The Foodservice Guide to Fresh Celery from Duda Farm Fresh Foods is designed to offer the tools you need for purchasing, handling and creating memorable menus featuring fresh celery. Let's talk stalk.

Dandy[®] DELIVERS

PROGRESSIVE PROCESSING

Duda Farm Fresh Foods uses a highly-innovative water jet cutting technology that eliminates the use of metal blades. This technique cuts the celery more smoothly, leaving less strings and pits, and locks in moisture - resulting in a higher quality product.

Our state-of-the-art Oxnard, California facility maximizes production and meets the most updated food safety requirements. The 65,000 square foot facility features 37,000 square feet of photovoltaic panels, which provide 40% of the power for the facility.

Dandy[®] delivers with our in-house freight experts and logistics team that doesn't depend on the open truck market to cover delivered business. In addition to our own small trucking fleet, we have developed direct relationships with various trucking companies which have dedicated specific trucks for our program. Our consistent truck supply means on-demand deliveries and excellent customer service. From across town to across the world, let our team take care of your logistics.
